the imaginary as a critical concept originated in the twentieth century and has been theorized in diverse ways it can be understood as a register of thought the way we interpret the world the universe of images signs texts and objects of thought in this volume it is explored as it manifests itself in encounters between the verbal and the visual a number of the essays brought together here explore the transposition of the imaginary in illustrations of texts and verbal renditions of images as well as in comic books based on paintings or on verbal narratives others analyze ways in which books deal with film or television and investigate the imaginary in digital media special attention is paid to the imaginary of places and the relationship of the imaginary with memory written in english and french these contributions by european and american scholars demonstrate the various concerns and approaches characteristic of contemporary scholarship in word and image studies pagan rhetor neo platonist philosopher christian theologian this collection of essays is devoted to the rhetoric neoplatonic philosophy and christian theology of marius victorinus a mid fourth century professor of rhetoric and philosopher who converted to christianity late in life scholars from eight different countries some of whom have not previously published in english reflect on debates about his writings and theological development these topics include victorinus s deployment of philosophical sources for trinitarian theology possible connections in his work to origen augustine plotinus porphyry and gnosticism as well as his contributions to latin rhetoric and dialectic contributors include jan dominik bogataj michael chase nello cipriani stephen a cooper volker henning drecol lenka karfíková josef lössl václav nĕmec thomas riesenweber guadalupe lopetegui semperena miran ĆpeliĆ chiara o tommasi john d turner and florian zacher the chapters in this volume are of great interest to students of late antique philosophy christian theology and latin rhetoric this book is an in depth examination of the pneumatology of origen of alexandria justin j lee argues that origen conceives of the holy spirit as a divine person but inferior in nature in both person and work this can be discerned from his understanding of the son and father as well as the influence of middle platonism on his theological and cosmological framework ontologically origen s understanding of trinity is a hierarchy of divine persons in which the greater ministers to the existence of the lower origen s pneumatology can be best understood by examining how he speaks about the work of the holy spirit the spirit participates in the divine work of salvation reflecting an economic trinity of shared work and will the spirit s primary role is to indwell and assist the saints there are two major actions of the holy spirit s work 1 the downward action of god where the spirit is the distributor of the divine gifts and graces and 2 the spirit s upward work of revelation and sanctification by which he leads the saints to the son and father the spirit thus serves as the practical and personal initiator of believers into the greater processes of salvation and deification this book is a phenomenological approach to film sound and film as a whole bringing all sensory impressions together within the body as a sense of movement this includes embodied listening felt sound and the audiovisual chord as a dynamic knot of visual and auditory movements from this perspective auditory spaces in film can be used as a pivot between an inner and an external world
